

MUSTAFA ﷺ

THE PARAGON OF MERCY

Explanation of the Salaam 'Mustafa Jaan e Rahmat'

Mustafa Jaan e Rahmat pe Laakhon Salaam is the famous Urdu language salawaat and salaam written by the Mujaddid of the 19th Century and Imam of the Ahl e Sunna in the Subcontinent, Ahmad Riza Khan, may Allah be pleased with him. It has not only been lauded as a work of prose for its unique composition and style but by leading religious scholars for its beautiful distillation of core Islamic beliefs.

Like its famous Arabic predecessor, the Qaseeda Burdah, each of its 171 sonnets is based on the teachings of the Quran and Ahadith and alongwith fulfilling the compulsion of presenting Salawaat and Salaam upon Allah's Beloved it also details the Islamic creed; describes the Prophet's virtues, Khasaais (particularities), Khilq (physique) and his Khulq (character) together with narrating his miracles and his major events. Finally, in true Islamic fashion, it sends blessings upon the Companions, Ahl ul Bait, Ulama and Awliyaa, before finishing with a supplication for blessings upon one's teachers and parents.

This first volume of the English explanation of the famous salaam covers the first 22 sonnets which focus on the Prophet's khasaais. This will not only be of interest to those who recite and hear this salaam but to all those who have a genuine in interest in increasing their love for the Prophet by getting to know him more.

Mufti Muhammad Khan Qadri is based in Lahore, Pakistan and is one of the leading teachers of Dars e Nizami (traditional Islamic scholastic course). He is also heavily involved in both writing and translating. He currently has over 100 titles published in a range of subjects such as Hadith, Fiqh, Usul ul Fiqh, women's rights and social issues. He is the first to begin and publish an Urdu translation of Imam Raazi's epic famous 'Tafseer Kabeer'

A number of his works have been translated into English, most notably The Prophet's Ramadhan and The Prophet's Hajj.
